

School of Allied Health Sciences Mission Statement

The School of Allied Health Sciences (SAHS) primary mission is to provide quality professional instruction at the undergraduate and graduate levels; conduct basic and applied research; and perform public service related to the improvement of health care delivery.

Faculty (32)	Health Physics and Diagnostic Sciences	(12) 3 Assistant Professors 3 Associate Professors 1 Visiting PTI Radiography 1 Lecturer 1 Assistant in Residence 1 Vacancy Clinical Laboratory Sciences 1 Assistant Professor 2 Associate Professors
	Kinesiology and Nutrition Sciences	(13) 2 Vacancies 4 Full Professors 6 Associate Professors 1 Lecturer 2 Visiting PTI
	Physical Therapy	(7) 4 Assistant Professors 3 Associate Professors

Programs	Department of Health Physics Comprehensive Medical Imaging — Bachelor of Science Health Physics — Bachelor of Science Nuclear Medicine — Bachelor of Science Radiography — Academic Certificate Clinical Laboratory Sciences Program Clinical Laboratory Sciences — Bachelor of Science Specimen Collection and Handling — Certificate Post-Baccalaureate Generalist — Certificate Clinical Chemistry — Certificate Clinical Hematology — Certificate Clinical Immunohematology — Certificate Clinical Microbiology — Certificate Minors Health Physics Clinical Laboratory Sciences Clinical Chemistry Clinical Hematology Clinical Immunohematology Clinical Microbiology Graduate Health Physics — Master of Science Radiochemistry — Ph.D. Department of Kinesiology and Nutrition Sciences Athletic Training — Bachelor of Science Kinesiology — Bachelor of Science Nutrition Sciences — Bachelor of Science Nutrition Sciences — Post-Baccalaureate Dietetic Internship Minors Kinesiology Graduate Exercise Physiology — Master of Science Kinesiology — Master of Science Department of Physical Therapy Doctor of Physical Therapy Transitional DPT
------------------------	--